The First Parish Church in Weston, MA is looking for a new Director of Faith Development and Community Engagement. This position reports to the Minister, Rev. Jeff Barz-Snell. Position is part-time (20-24 hours per week) and full-time candidates will be considered. Health care and retirement benefits are available.

First Parish is a liberal Christian congregation affiliated with the Unitarian Universalist Association. The Church has a rich history of more than 300 years and a strong community identity. Serving a congregation of 380 members, we seek a creative, dynamic individual to work with our minister and provide spiritual guidance for children, youth, and families. First Parish Church is blessed with a healthy and active leadership that values our current community and is excited by our potential. We know that old forms of programs increasingly do not work and we are looking to innovate and create new ways to foster community, encourage people in their spiritual lives and work for justice in this world.

The successful candidate may be from a UU congregation or sympathetic Christian denomination. Required qualifications include:

- Inspiring vision for religious education and community engagement in the pandemic and post-pandemic era;
- History of developing programs that lead to increased interest and involvement;
- Solid understanding of child and adolescent development;
- Excellent communication skills, including speaking, writing and listening;
- Conversant with social media, including web development and online teaching;
- Strong work ethic, willing to work flexible hours;
- Musical talents, including vocal and instrumental.

The salary and compensation are commensurate with education and experience. The full-time annual salary range is $62,000-$70,000. Pro-rated adjustments in salary, benefits and administrative responsibilities will be made for part-time candidates. Projected start date is August 15, 2020. Review of applications will begin June 15, 2020 and continue until the position is filled.
